Dear Dr. Kaufmann,

I hope this e-mail finds you well. I'd like to make you a business proposition.

As you know we are selling the DME product you created and patented under our trade name Natural Cellular Defense. I would like to propose to you that you and Waiora enter into a simple consulting arrangement whereby you perform independent testing and certification of the product. I would like for you to perform this work on a quarterly or semi-annual basis whichever you prefer. We would be willing to pay you a consulting fee of $5,000 per quarter or $10,000 every six months to perform these services. No other strings attached. I hope that you are interested.

It is my desire to sell a great product and ensure that you are recognized and compensated for your work. I don't know all the issues that have existed between Rik and your employer or your self and quite frankly I don't need to be involved. I just want my product tested and I think you and I can reach a simple solution.

Please let me know your response by sending me back an e-mail or by calling me at my office phone which is 561-922-2201.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Stan Cherelstein
